

Reading Corner

Celebrate all the different kinds of pumpkins in the patch! Little ones will love this fresh fall twist on the classic nursery rhyme "I'm a Little Teapot".

Crafts are a great way to add learning value to a story. So many pumpkins are just waiting to be discovered and transformed into different colors!

Pumpkin, Pumpkin

Pumpkin,
Pumpkin sitting on a wall

Pumpkin, Pumpkin don't tip and fall.

Pumpkin,
Pumpkin rolling
down the street

Pumpkin,
Pumpkin
you're so sweet!

Place child on lap and begin to bounce them. Use your creativity through the different actions. At the end kiss or tickle your child!

Little pumpkin is a captivating story that will ignite young minds with the wonderful curiosity about the mysteries of nature. This enchanting story shows the journey of a tiny seed transforming into a magnificent pumpkin!

Use your left over pumpkin seeds to create fall crafts.

