

Felt Board Rhymes are a creative way to teach children the concepts of Shapes, Color, and Numbers! Here is a sweet little rhyme about adding.

Create your own five little bears

Crafts are a great way to add learning value to a story. Supplies needed for this bear craft are paper, printer and some very creative children!

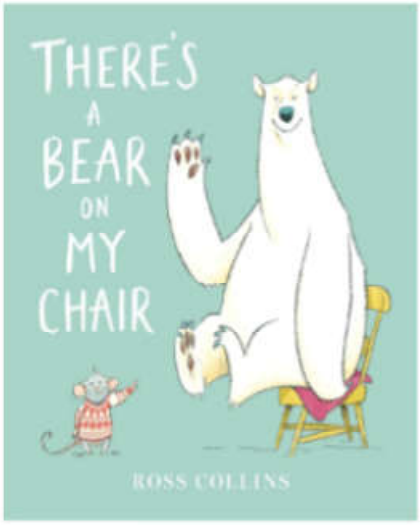

In the icy-cold heart of winter, a little bear wanders through the snow, searching for a place to call home. But where can he go? Each woodland nook and cranny has been claimed by other animals. There is no room for a bear. Suddenly, Snowy Bear sees a warm flickering of light, orange and bright in the distance. It's a house with a lonely little girl inside! Could this be Snowy Bear's new home?

Action Rhymes are great for burning off your little ones extra energy!

Poor Mouse! A bear has settled in his favorite chair, and that chair just isn't big enough for two. Mouse tries all kinds of tactics to move pesky Bear, but nothing works. Once Mouse has gone, Bear gets up and walks home. But what's that? Is that a mouse in Bear's house?
